NEW YORK, NY (January 16, 2011) – The New York City Business Leadership Network (NYCBLN) today announces its Board of Directors.

The new strategic leadership team includes Rich Donovan, Chief Executive Officer at WingSail Capital Management, Tammie McNaughton, Senior HR Consultant, Noritza Perito, Chief Operating Officer at Hire Disability Solutions / Be-A-Hero, Hire-A-Hero, Judy Hirsch, Office of Inclusion & Diversity for the National Grid, and Steve Z. Williamson, Esq., Law Office of Steve Williamson, PLLC.

Rich Donovan leads the team as Board Chair, Noritza Perito has taken on the role of Secretary and Judy Hirsch will serve as Treasurer.

NYCBLN is undergoing a major strategic review to align with the demands of its Business Customers. The new Board Chair is leading this review to chart a path to organizational sustainability and to aggressively provoke profitable growth for its Business Customers as it relates to people with disabilities. NYCBLN expects to re-launch by end of 2nd quarter 2012. Its first priority will be naming a full-time CEO.

Said Rich Donovan, “We’re done talking. It’s time to create value. Welcome to New York City.”
